

Halloween Party Information

This packet contains information about the party and about the character you'll be playing. Included are:

- A Map and directions to the house.
- A Game rules.
- A Costume resources - Links and area resources, and the occasional suggestion.
- A 1920's resources - This party is set in 1926. Included are a 20's timeline, a list of some period slang, and links for further reading on the Web (optional).
- C Information about your character, including a brief biography. Feel free to flesh out your character as much as you like. Most have been based on real people, so you have a jumping-off point for adding additional detail.
- C A party invitation to your character, which includes a calling card. When you arrive for the party, please present the card to the butler so that he can introduce you.
