

Costume Suggestions

Obviously, as a butler, you'll want to wear something reasonably austere (no shorts), but the details are up to you.

We're trying for a kind of Tim Burton-esque "things aren't quite normal" feel to the atmosphere of the house, so think formal but...weird. (If you've ever visited Disney's Haunted Mansion, those costumes are good...dark green coat and trousers, a strange purple vest, and gloves.) Use your imagination!
